Introduction

This year has been filled with a lot of joy and fun times spent with family and friends. I wanted to share some of my stories from this holiday season via this brief list of links to articles on Medium. But, this book isn't yet complete.

You are invited to add your own stories by sending them either to cyberlandhq@gmail.com, or responding to the articles I've written via the links on Medium.

Thanks,

Jon Morgan

Visiting my parents for Christmas

We typically try to stay at least over night when we're visiting my parents for Christmas, but this year this just wasn't possible with Theresa's schedule. So, our trip was more of a mad dash down to see them, and then a dash back towards home in the evening. It felt as if we only had a little bit of time to relax, eat dinner, and exchange gifts before we packed up the car and left.
